The successful candidate will be able to support in the planning and delivery of high-quality learning experiences and cover whole classes in the absence of a teacher across the school. You will have a high expectation of learning and behaviour and inspire and motivate our children, seeking to make learning exciting and a positive experience. You will need to demonstrate good communication skills, both orally and written and work well as part of a team.

At Legacy Learning Trust, we are a strong, growing, cross-phase Trust, rooted in our local community and committed to placing learners and learning at the heart of all that we do.

We welcome applications from candidates who align with the values we pride ourselves upon:

- Strong relationships
- High expectations and aspirations
- Equality and equity
- Celebrating diversity

Abingdon Primary School is part of The Legacy Learning Trust. We are a mainstream primary school that is committed to inclusive education and meeting the needs of all the children in our care. We look to ensure children make the most progress they can, in all areas of school life. High quality staff to support children's learning and emotional and social well-being, a well-planned curriculum and a commitment to developing a strong sense of belonging are at the heart of all we do.

We offer you:

- A wonderful place to work, with supportive, hardworking colleagues and governors who care passionately about our school and local community;
- Collaborative working with colleagues from other trust schools.
